INDEX

Administración General de Petróleos Nacional, 123
Agraiza, Genaro, cited, 149 n.
Agricultural Adjustment Administration (AAA), 99, 103
Air Raids Precaution Service (British), 70
Alaska, 156, 157, 162, 184
Albania, and Spanish civil war, 298
Aldrovandi-Marescotti, Count, Italian delegate at Brussels Conference, 228, 229
Allen, James S., quoted, 177 n.
Amerasia, cited, 205
American Civil Liberties Union, investigates Puerto Rican disturbances, 159 n.
American Federation of Labor, urges boycott of Japanese goods, 224, 304
Anti-Communist pact, 6, 32, 35, 306; German-Japanese, 6, 208; joined by Italy, 229-230, 301
Argentina, 144, 274, 317; trade agreement with Great Britain, 93, 95 n.; foreign population in, 136-137; friction with United States over Sanitary Convention, 145-146; objects to leasing of over-age United States destroyers to Brazil, 149-150, 308; commodity prices in, 264
Armaments, limitation of, 322. See also Naval Agreements
Armaments race, 114, 322; in continental Europe, 78-82; military budgets of leading powers, 78-87; indications of, in Latin America, 149; imports in Japan rise due to, 186; comparative strength of naval powers, 270-271; chronology of naval armaments, 315-318
Armaments Year-Book, 62, 83 n.
Arms embargo, 202, 322; in Spanish civil war, 42-43, 59, 293; U. S. neutrality legislation exempts Latin American states from, 58; partial embargo in Far Eastern crisis, 198-199, 303; in Italo-Ethiopian war, 199. See also Munitions, Neutrality
Augusta, United States cruiser, bombed in China, 195, 302
Australia, 166, 241, 317; signs international sugar agreement, 105; boycott in, against Japanese goods, 224; at Brussels Conference, 226-230, 304; commodity prices in, 264
Austria, 3, 13, 134, 320, 322; and Spanish civil war, 298
Autarchy, 322
Azaña, Manuel, President of Loyalist Spain, 299

Bach, Julian S., cited, 170 n.
Baldwin, Stanley, 291; on British rearmament, 72-73
Bank for International Settlements, 65
Batista, Fulgencio, Cuban dictator, 168, 169, 170, 174; announces three-year plan for Cuba, 171-172, 311
Beals, Carleton, cited, 133 n., 172 n., 175 n.
Beard, Charles A., 239 n.
Belgian Congo, copper production in, 64
Belgium, 79, 88 n., 272, 314, 322; reverts to pre-war neutrality, 16; relaxes trade restrictions, 94, 95; signs Oslo Convention, 95, 320; and Far Eastern crisis, 226-230, 304; and Locarno Pact, 289, 290; and Spanish civil war, 294
Bennett, Richard, opposes Anglo-American trade agreement, 112
Berliner Tageblatt, cited, 76 n.
Besault, Lawrence De, 172 n.
Beteta, Ramón, on Mexico's foreign policy, 129, 312

Bisson, T. A., cited, 192 n.
Blum, Léon, 16, 289, 290; and Spanish civil war, 293
Bolivia, 150-152, 274; at Brussels Conference, 226-230; chronology, 309. See also Chaco dispute
Bone, Senator Homer T., on neutrality legislation, 45
Bonnet, Georges, 290
Bono, General Emilio de, cited, 26 n.
Borah, Senator William E., on neutrality legislation, 45; on Spanish civil war, 59
Bosques, Gilberto, cited, 122 n.
Boxer treaties, 195 n.
Brazil, 2, 144, 146, 272, 274, 308, 317, 322; foreign population in, 136-137; barter agreement with Germany, 139; financial and trade agreements with the United States, 147, 307; proposed lease of United States destroyers to, 147-152, 276-277, 308; Constitution of 1934 abolished, 150-152; chronology, 309-310
British Imperial Conference, 15, 112, 291, 292, 313, 323; Anglo-American trade agreement discussed at, 111
British Labor Party, endorses rearmament, 74 n., 315; urges boycott of Japanese goods, 225, 304
British Royal Commission, 289
Bru, Frederico Laredo, 169
Bruce, Stanley, on Sino-Japanese dispute, 217, 218
Brussels Conference. See Sino-Japanese dispute
Buell, Raymond Leslie, cited, 57 n.
Buenos Aires Conference. See Inter-American Conference for the Maintenance of Peace
Bulgaria, 289
Burton, Wilbur, cited, 136 n.
Bury, J. B., cited, 7 n.

Calles, Plutarco Elías, 119, 120, 124
Campos, Pedro Albizu, Puerto Rican Nationalist leader, 158, 159
Canada, 49, 97, 139, 166, 272, 307, 317, 322; military appropriations, 82, 314; production improves in 1937 in, 89; trade agreement with United States, 106, 112-113, 320; relations with United States, 115; at Brussels Conference, 226-230; indices of production in, 263; dollar bonds of, 273
Capper, Senator Arthur, on Trade Agreements Act, 108
Cárdenas, Lázaro, 40, 120, 131, 311; elected President of Mexico, 119; inaugurates new agrarian program, 121; attempts to settle strike in oil industry, 126, 312
Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, 24
Chaco dispute, 151, 152, 322; chronology, 310-311
Chamberlain, Neville, 14, 291; on European peace, 24-25; on British rearmament, 64-65, 73; proposes series of loans to meet cost of rearmament, 72; announces that trade agreement with the United States is contemplated, 112; and Far Eastern crisis, 223, 227; and Spanish civil war, 299
Chamberlin, William H., cited, 182
Chang Hsueh-liang, General, 300
Chardón Report (on Puerto Rico), 162
Chautemps, Camille, 14, 290
Chiang Kai-shek, General, Chinese national leader, 300, 303, 305; makes peace with Chinese Communists, 40, 304
Chicago Daily News, quoted, 200-201
Chile, 64, 149, 274
China, 14, 55, 83, 182, 183, 189, 220, 224, 237, 322; dispute with Japan in 1931–1932, 4, 5, 67; reconciliation of Nationalists and Communists, 40, 185, 304; signs international sugar agreement in London, 105; resistance to Japanese program, 185-186; economic conditions, 185-186; non-aggression pact with Russia, 215, 216, 303, silver agreement with the United States, 186, 307; press comment on Roosevelt's Chicago

speech, 222. See also Sino-Japanese dispute
Clark, Senator Bennett C., on neutrality, 43, 45 n., 202
Colijn, Hendryk, at London Sugar Conference, 103
Collective action, 217, 229, 236; foreign policy of United States and, 19-20; failure of peace agencies to agree on, 25; as contemplated for Western Hemisphere, 142; weakness of, 207
Collective security, 14, 16, 39, 220, 322; American neutrality and, 56; inter-American peace machinery, 141-144, 152-153, 176, 308, 309. See also League of Nations
Colombia, 152, 272, 274, 322; and Spanish civil war, 297
Colorado River Company, 121, 311
Committee for Boycott Against Japanese Aggression, 224
Committee for Industrial Organization (CIO), urges boycott of Japanese goods, 224, 304
Communism, 2, 105, 301, 322; danger of spread in France, 16; clashes with Fascism in Spain, 26 ff.; fought by Nazi government, 40
Compagnia Mineraria Ethiopica, 93
Compañia Agricola y Colonizadora de Tabasco, 312
Connally, Senator Tom, on neutrality legislation, 52
Continental Export and Import Company, 96
Convention of Conciliation, invoked in Haiti-Dominican Republic dispute, 309
Copper, U. S. exports and prices in 1936 and 1937, 268
Costa Rica, 210 n., 272, 274; trade agreement with United States, 106, 319; mediator in boundary dispute between Honduras and Nicaragua, 153, 308
Crawford, Representative Fred L., on Philippine Islands, 180
Crowther, Representative Frank, urges termination of Trade Agreements Act, 107
Cuba, 154, 272, 274, 320, 322; adverse effects of United States sugar legislation on, 98 ff.; new orientation of, 167 ff.; military rule in, 168-171; three-year plan, 171-172; mediates in border dispute between Haiti and Dominican Republic, 175, 309; attitude toward competition from Philippine Islands, 179; and Spanish civil war, 299; chronology, 311
Culkin, Representative Francis D., urges extension of Trade Agreements Act, 107
Cumberland, British cruiser, bombed in China, 195, 302
Currency stabilization, 147, 186, 307, 322; affected by trade restrictions, 88 ff.
Czechoslovakia, 70, 289, 290; threatened by Germany, 15, 33; trade agreement between United States and, 106, 113; and Spanish civil war, 294

Daniels, Josephus, makes representations to Mexico on land expropriations, 130, 312; on tariff increases, 131, 321
Davis, Norman H., at London Sugar Conference, 103; at Brussels Conference, 226-230; text of statement at conference, 284-285
Dawson, Christopher, cited, 10 n.
Delbos, Yvon, 290
Democracy, 109; contrasted with other ideologies, 12-13; loses ground in Europe, 17; rôle in Spanish crisis, 26 ff.; passive rôle in Central Europe, 32 ff.; crusade against, by authoritarian powers, 134; threat to, in Latin America, 140-142
Denmark, 70, 93, 321; and rearmament, 82, 315; relaxation of trade restrictions, 94, 95, 314; represented at Brussels Conference, 226-230; and Spanish civil war, 294, 299
Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, cited, 76 n.

Deutschland, German battleship, bombed in Spain, 28, 295, 296
Diaz, Porfirio, 116, 117
Dirksen, Representative Everett M., on rearmament, 85
Dominican Republic, 274, 322; dispute with Haiti, 154, 172 ff., 175, 308-309
Doughton, Representative Robert L., on extension of Trade Agreements Act, 107
Duff Cooper, Alfred, on improvements in British army, 71

Economic depression and recovery, 322
Economist (London) cited, 90, 93 n.
Ecuador, 272 n., 274; plans trade agreement with United States, 106; and Spanish civil war, 297
Eden, Anthony, 291; on Far Eastern crisis, 212; at Brussels Conference, 227, 228; and Spanish civil war, 296
Egypt, British influence diminishes in, 31; admitted to membership of League of Nations, 289, 313
Eicher, Representative Edward C., on neutrality in Far Eastern crisis, 202
Espil, Felipe A., 145
Ethiopia, 5, 8, 26 n., 30, 31, 67, 93, 242, 292, 321, 322
Europe, peace threatened by authoritarian states, 3, 14, 68; war and crisis in, 24 ff.; rearmament in, 63, 64; arms race, 78-82; industrial recession in, 90, 91; trade policies, 95; foreign dollar bonds of, outstanding and in default, 273; chronology of political events in, 289-299
Exchange restrictions, 91-92, 322
Export-Import Bank, 185

Far East, 19, 33, 192, 207, 242-243, 305, 322; references to 1931 crisis in, 4, 185, 192, 207, 208; interval of quiet in, 185-186, 189; outbreak of new hostilities in, 191 ff.; British interests in, 15; attitude of United States toward new dispute, 21, 207 ff.; American neutrality as applied to Far Eastern crisis, 55, 198-206; parallel action by United States and Great Britain in new crisis, 22; foreign dollar bonds of, outstanding and in default, 273; chronology of events in, 300-306. See also China, Japan and Sino-Japanese dispute
Fascism, 1, 105, 109, 140, 323; rising tide of, 6-7; influence on Christian Church, 9, 11; danger of spread in France, 16; in Spain, 26 ff.; in Latin America, 137, 150
Fascist Grand Council, approves government's rearmament program, 79-80, 314
Faupel, General Wilhelm, 32
Federal Board of Conciliation and Arbitration (Mexican), attempts to settle oil strike, 125-126; ruling on oil strike, 126-127, 312
Federal Reserve Board, 65; raises reserve requirements of member banks, 89
Finland, 272, 308; and rearmament, 82; relaxation of trade restrictions in, 95, 314
Fish, Representative Hamilton, on neutrality, 59; on Far Eastern crisis, 196, 205
Foreign Bondholders Protective Council, Inc., 273 n.
Foreign debts, 323; chronology of, 308
Foreign trade, 263-264, 323; improves in 1937, 91-92. See also Tariffs
France, 4, 13, 14, 15, 17, 23, 54, 88 n., 156, 238, 239, 246, 272, 306, 307, 316, 321, 323; and Far Eastern crisis, 5, 22, 206, 211, 214, 224, 226-230, 302, 304; danger of spread of Fascism and Communism in, 16; and Spanish civil war, 26 ff., 293-299; signs Nyon agreement to deal with piracy, 29-30, 297-298; clash of interests with Italy in the Mediterranean, 30-32; and Central European crisis, 32-33; and rearmament, 63 ff., 314, 315; and sixteen-inch gun controversy, 76-78, 316, 317; military and naval budget of, 78-79, 314; naval strength of, compared with that of other powers, 270-271; production improves in 1937 in, 89; indices of production, 263; commodity prices in, 264; comment on alleged Fascist régime in Brazil, 150; comment on President Roosevelt's Chicago speech, 222; chronology, 290

Franco, General Francisco, commander of Spanish Insurgents, 5, 27, 28, 31, 32, 39, 59, 299
Franco, General Rafael, President of Paraguay, 310, 313
Frankfurter Zeitung, cited, 67 n., 76 n.; on President Roosevelt's Chicago speech, 222

Garcia, R. Fernandez, 162 n.
Germany, 2, 5, 6, 10, 13, 16, 17, 22, 54, 59, 70, 210 n., 238, 243, 290, 308, 315, 316, 320, 321, 323; rise of power of, 3; and Spanish civil war, 26 ff., 49, 293-299; rôle of, in Central European crisis, 32-35; religious intolerance in, 33-34; rearmament of, 62 ff., 317-318; naval agreement with Great Britain, 74-76, 316, 317; naval strength of, compared with that of other powers, 270-271; conditions improve in first half of 1937, 88-89; announces four-year plan, 92; drive for self-sufficiency in, 92-94; signs international sugar agreement, 105; barter agreement with Brazil, 139; possible rôle of, in Latin America, 141; comment on establishment of alleged Fascist régime in Brazil, 150; and Far Eastern crisis, 212, 214, 226, 304; comment on President Roosevelt's Chicago speech, 222; signs anti-Communist pact with Italy and Japan, 229-230, 301; indices of production in, 263; commodity prices in, 264; chronology, 291
Goebbels, Paul Joseph, quoted, 10
Goering, General Hermann Wilhelm, 291
Gold, 323; "sterilized" by United States, 90. See also International Finance
Gomez, Miguel Mariano, 168-169
Gondra Treaty of 1923, invoked in dispute between Haiti and Dominican Republic, 175, 309
Good Neighbor policy, 118, 130, 143, 145, 154, 155, 240, 277, 323; in jeopardy in Mexico, 128; meets test in Cuba, 167; restatement of, 275-276
Gort, General John Standish, 71
Graziani, General Rodolfo, 292
Great Britain, 2, 4, 5, 13, 14, 16, 17, 19, 23, 49, 54, 134, 196, 210 n., 238, 290, 306, 307, 320, 323; and Far Eastern crisis, 15, 22, 206, 207, 211, 212, 214, 223-225, 226-230, 245-246, 301, 302, 303; and Spanish civil war, 26 ff., 293-299; gentlemen's agreement with Italy, 27, 289; signs Nyon agreement to deal with piracy, 29, 297, 298; clash of interests with Italy in the Mediterranean, 30-32; and Central European crisis, 32-35; and rearmament, 39, 67-74, 314, 315, 316; signs bilateral naval agreements with Germany and Soviet Russia, 74-76, 316, 317; and sixteen-inch gun controversy, 76-78, 316, 317; naval strength of, compared with that of other powers, 270-271; conditions improve in first half of 1937, 88-89; recession, 90; efforts to improve trade, 93; relaxes trade restrictions, 94-95; signs international sugar agreement, 105; contemplated trade agreement with the United States, 106, 109-114, 272 n., 320; agrarian reforms and oil controversy in Mexico affect British interests, 121, 124-128, 312; commerce of, affected by trade rivalries in Latin America, 138-140; comments on establishment of alleged Fascist régime in Brazil, 150; indices of production in, 263; commodity prices in, 264; chronology, 291-292

Greece, and Spanish civil war, 295
Grew, Joseph Clark, on Far Eastern crisis, 213, 232, 233
Gruening, Ernest, on sugar quota legislation, 100
Guatemala, 272, 274; and Spanish civil war, 299

Haiti, 272, 274, 323; massacres of nationals on Dominican border, 154, 172 ff., 175, 308; asks inter-American mediation, 175, 309; invokes Gondra Treaty and inter-American Conciliation Convention, 175, 309
Haldane, J. B. S., quoted, 61
Halifax, Edward Frederick Lindley Wood, third Viscount, confers with Hitler, 34, 38, 291
Halperin, Maurice, cited, 120 n.
Hanighen, Frank C., cited, 136 n.
Harrison, Leland, at meetings of Far-East Advisory Committee, 216
Harrison, Senator Pat, on sugar quota legislation, 101
Hart, Captain Liddell, 72
Hasegawa, Admiral Kiyoshi, 212, 213, 214
Hawaii, 157, 162, 184, 241; affected by new sugar quotas, 100-101; attitude toward competition from Philippine Islands, 179
Hawley-Smoot Tariff Act of 1930, 98 n., 145
Hayashi, General Senjuro, 188, 300; forms new Japanese Cabinet, 187
Hays, Arthur Garfield, 159 n.
Hirota, Koki, 190, 213, 214, 215, 301; announces evacuation of Japanese from China, 198; tenders apologies for sinking of United States gunboat Panay, 232, 233
Hitler, Adolf, 3, 11, 14, 37, 38, 152, 315; and Spanish civil war, 27 ff., 293-299; and Central European policies, 33; calls for return of Germany's colonies, 33-34, 291
Hoare-Laval agreement, 38, 110, 239, 246
Hoare, Sir Samuel, on gun limitation for battleships, 77, 316
Hoffman, Representative Claire, urges immediate withdrawal from Philippine Islands, 180
Holy Alliance, 135
Honduras, 272, 274; boundary dispute with Nicaragua, 152-153, 308-309
Hongkong, threatened by Japan in China, 5
Hoover moratorium, 2, 308, 323
Hore-Belisha, Leslie, reorganizes British Army Council, 71, 72
Hornbeck, Stanley K., at Brussels Conference, 226
Howe, Quincy, cited, 38
Howland, Charles P., cited, 57 n., 117 n., 118 n., 123 n.
Hughes, Lieutenant Commander James Joseph, reports on sinking of Panay, 231
Hull, Cordell, 198, 207, 291, 321; and Far Eastern crisis, 20, 196-197, 203-204, 213, 220, 233-234, 282-283, 285-286, 286-287, 302, 303, 304, 305; and Spanish civil war, 59, 295, 296, 297, 299; protests against restrictions in new sugar legislation, 101, 102; trade agreements policy, 106 ff.; sponsors trade agreement with Great Britain, 109; confers with Belgian Premier on means of reducing trade barriers, 111; attempts to improve trade relations with Mexico, 130; and Buenos Aires Conference, 141; and Argentine Sanitary Convention, 145-146; arranges trade and financial agreements with Brazil, 146-147; proposes leasing of over-age destroyers to Brazil, 147-152, 308; issues peace appeal to the nations of the world, 209-211, 220, 301, 318; text of the appeal, 261-262; opposes Ludlow Resolution, 236
Hungary, 13, 289; and Spanish civil war, 298, 299; makes payment on war debt, 308

Ickes, Harold LeClair, on sugar quota legislation, 99-100
Ideologies, war of, in Europe, 12-13, 15, 16, 33-37
Iglesias, Santiago, on conditions in Puerto Rico, 164
India, 317; signs international sugar agreement, 105; boycott movement in, against Japanese goods, 224; at Brussels Conference, 226-230
Inskip, Sir Thomas, 314
Institut für Konjunkturforschung, 63
Integralista Party (Brazilian Fascists), 310
Inter-American Conciliation Convention, invoked by Haiti, 175, 176, 309
Inter-American Conference for the Maintenance of Peace, 58, 96, 275, 277, 308, 321, 323; agreements signed at, 141-144
International finance, chronology of events pertaining to, 306-307
International Settlement. See Sino-Japanese dispute—Shanghai hostilities
Inukai, Tsuyoshi, 188
Irish Free State, 292; and Spanish civil war, 294
Iron and steel scrap, U. S. exports and prices in 1936 and 1937, 266
Italy, 1, 5, 6, 13, 15, 17, 22, 54, 59, 88 n., 137, 243, 289, 316, 318, 321, 323; and Spanish civil war, 26 ff., 293-299; gentlemen's agreement with Great Britain, 27, 289; joins Nyon agreement to deal with "piracy," 30, 297, 298; clash of interests with those of Great Britain and France in the Mediterranean, 30-32; and rearmament, 62 ff., 79-80, 314, 316, 317; and sixteen-inch gun controversy, 76-78, 316, 317; naval strength of, compared with that of other powers, 270-271; production improves in 1937, 89; drive for self-sufficiency in, 92-94; relaxes trade restrictions, 94; concludes special trade arrangements with the United States, 106 n., 112, 320; possible rôle of, in Latin America, 141; comment of press on establishment of alleged Fascist régime in Brazil, 150; and Far Eastern crisis, 212, 214, 226-230, 302, 304, 305; press comment on President Roosevelt's Chicago speech, 222; signs anti-Communist pact with Germany and Japan, 229-230, 301; recognizes "Manchukuo," 301; indices of production in, 263; commodity prices in, 264; chronology, 292

Jacobs, Thornwell, 7, 8
James, Earle K., cited, 163 n., 164 n.
Jane's Fighting Ships, 78
Japan, 4, 6, 7, 15, 19, 20, 21, 22, 31, 33, 38, 40, 54, 56, 60, 64, 67, 68, 83, 85, 96, 184, 220, 243, 244, 307, 320, 321, 323; and sixteen-inch gun controversy, 76-78, 316, 317; denies building superdreadnoughts 77-78, 316; and rearmament, 78, 314, 316; naval strength of, compared with that of other powers, 270-271; production in first half of 1937, 89; relaxes trade restrictions, 94; press comment on establishment of alleged Fascist régime in Brazil, 150; and Philippine Islands, 181-183; expansion of, in Eastern Asia, 185; domestic tension in, 186-190; clashes in Diet over budget, 187-188, 300; supports "Manchukuo" in Amur River incident, 190-191, 192, 301; comments on Secretary Hull's peace appeal, 210; on President Roosevelt's Chicago speech, 222; signs anti-Communist pact with Germany and Italy, 229-230, 301; indices of production in, 263; commodity prices in, 264; recognizes Spanish Insurgent régime, 299, chronology, 300-301. See also Sino-Japanese dispute
Johnson, Senator Hiram, on neutrality legislation, 52; objects to ratification of Inter-American treaties, 143; on leasing of destroyers to Brazil, 148-149

Johnson, Representative Jed, on neutrality legislation, 48
Johnson, Representative Luther A., on neutrality legislation, 52
Johnson, Nelson T., 230
Jones-Costigan Act, 98-99, 102
Jones, Representative Marvin, on sugar legislation, 101
Journal of Commerce (New York), quoted, 200

Keller, Adolf, cited, 10 n.
Kellogg Pact. See Pact of Paris
Kennedy, Joseph Patrick, 198
Keppel, Frederick Paul, 24
Keynes, John Maynard, 16
King, Mackenzie, urges increased arms appropriation, 82
Kloeb, Representative Frank L., on neutrality legislation, 53
Knatchbull-Hugessen, Sir Hughe, wounded in China, 230, 303
Knutson, Representative Harold, urges abolition of trade agreements, 107
Konoye, Fumimaro, Japanese Premier, forms new Cabinet, 188, 301; on Brussels Conference, 229
Kopplemann, Representative H. P., on neutrality legislation, 52
Kredit Anstalt, 2
Krock, Arthur, 221
Kung, H. H., 302; financial agreement with United States, 186

Ladybird, British gunboat, bombed in China, 232, 305
Landon, Alfred M., opposes Ludlow Resolution, 236-237
Largo Caballero, Francisco, 39
Latin America, 19, 20, 40, 82, 118, 128, 134, 151, 237, 240, 323; effects of U. S. neutrality legislation on, 57-58; relaxation of trade restrictions in, 95; possible European intervention in, 135-136; foreign political blocs in, 136-137; Japanese immigration, 137; trade rivalries, 138-140; Italian propaganda, 139; threat to democracy in, 140-142; Pan Americanism in theory and in practice, 144-147; armaments race in, 149; conditions in the Caribbean, 154 ff.; working of inter-American peace machinery, 176; comments on President Roosevelt's Chicago speech in, 222; dollar bonds of, outstanding and in default, 273; status of treaties and conventions signed at Buenos Aires Conference, 274; chronology, 308-313
Latvia, relaxes trade restrictions, 94
Laval, Pierre, 2
Lead, U. S. exports and prices, in 1936–1937, 268
League Against War and Fascism, advocates boycott of Japanese goods, 224
League of Nations, 5, 16, 210, 222, 289, 292, 308, 314, 315, 321, 323; and Sino-Japanese dispute of 1931, 4; and Far Eastern crisis of 1937, 206, 207, 208, 211, 214, 215-219, 226-230, 301-306; and American neutrality legislation, 55, 56; and rearmament, 62; and Spanish civil war, 293-299; and Chaco dispute, 310; chronology, 313. See also Sino-Japanese dispute
Leahy, Admiral William D., on new naval building programs, 69 n., 84
Leipzig (German battleship), reports attack by Loyalist submarine, 28, 296
Leith-Ross, Sir Frederick, heads economic mission to United States, 111-112
Leticia dispute, 323
Lewis, Senator J. Hamilton, on Trade Agreements Act, 108; urges withdrawal of United States troops from China, 196
Little Entente, 289
Litvinoff, Maxim M., on Russian rearmament, 80; and Amur River dispute, 191; at Brussels Conference, 228
Locarno Treaties, 3, 39, 289, 323
Lodge, Senator Henry C., Jr., urges suspension of trade-agreement negotiations, 109

Ludlow, Representative Louis, 235, 318
Ludlow Resolution, 235-237, 318; text of, as finally revised, 288
Luxemburg, relaxes trade restrictions, 95
Lytton Report, 216

MacDonald, J. Ramsay, at London Sugar Conference, 103
Machado, Gerardo, 167, 168, 170, 311
McNutt, Paul V., 319
McReynolds, Representative Sam D., 242, 318; on neutrality legislation, 43
Mallory, Walter H., cited, 193 n.
"Manchukuo." See Manchuria
Manchuria, 4, 5, 7, 19, 20, 31, 38, 110, 184, 189, 190, 207, 323; Amur River incident, 190-191, 192, 301. See also China, Far East, Japan, Sino-Japanese dispute
Mar Cantábrico, (Spanish merchantship), 42, 43
Matsui, General Iwane, 305
Mexican Eagle Company, agreement with Mexico on oil, 127, 312
Mexico, 140, 141, 154, 156, 175, 274, 295, 307, 309, 321, 323; in transition, 115 ff.; American investments in, 116; drafts six-year plan, 119; inaugurates agrarian reform program, 121-122; nationalizes railways, 122; plans "Mexicanization" of industries, 123-128; relations with the United States, 128-133; raises tariffs, 130-131; abrogation of Article VIII of Gadsden Treaty, 143 n.; boycott of Japanese goods urged in, 224; at Brussels Conference, 226-230; chronology, 311-313
Millis, Walter, 38
Moffat, Pierrepont, at Brussels Conference, 226
Monetary and Economic Conference of 1933, 103, 246, 324
Monroe Doctrine, 58, 82, 239-240, 309, 323; Roosevelt Administration's policy, 134 ff.
Monroe, James, 58. See also Monroe Doctrine
Morgenthau, Henry, Jr., signs currency agreement with Brazil, 146
Morrow-Calles agreement, 123, 127, 130, 312
Morrow, Dwight, 124; inaugurates good-neighbor policy in Latin America, 118
Munguía, Enrique, cited, 120
Munitions, 45, 202, 205, 314, 323; French government nationalizes munitions plants, 79; chronology, 313-314. See also Neutrality
Murkland, H. Banta, cited, 157 n.
Mussolini, Benito, 1, 14, 30, 31, 32, 35, 37, 38, 139, 152, 289, 291, 292; and Spanish civil war, 27 ff., 293-299
Mussolini, Bruno, quoted, 8-9

Nation, quoted, 201
National Bank of Agricultural Credit (Mexican), 120
National Bank of Ejido Credit (Mexican), 120
National Council for the Prevention of War, opposes boycott of Japanese goods, 225
National Railways of Mexico, 122
National Students Federation, opposes Ludlow Amendment, 241
Naval agreements, 74 ff.; London treaties, 39, 74, 84, 148, 316, 317; British bilateral agreement with Soviet Russia and Germany, 74-76; sixteen-inch gun controversy, 76-78, 316-317. See also Armaments race
Netherlands, 4, 88 n., 272, 289, 306, 323; increases military appropriations, 5, 315; increases annual contingent of conscripts, 82; production improves in 1937, 89; relaxes trade restrictions, 95, 314, 320; at Brussels Conference, 226-230; and Spanish civil war, 295
Neurath, Baron Constantin von, 40

Neutrality, 136, 323; problems of, in Far Eastern crisis, 21, 55, 56, 60, 198-206, 219, 303; in Spanish civil war, 41-42, 60, 293, 295; new legislation before Congress, 41 ff.; mandatory and discretionary powers, 45-48; "cash and carry" plan, 48-50, 238; definition of war policies in new legislation, 51-52; war profits and, 51-52; and collective action, 52-56; and Inter-American treaties, 56-58; and Ludlow Amendment, 235-237; chronology, 318
New Republic, quoted, 201
New York Herald Tribune, quoted, 53, 84, 124, 183, 240
New York Times, quoted, 7, 56, 84, 221, 223, 236
New York World Telegram, 183
New Zealand, 315, 317; at Brussels Conference, 226-230
Nicaragua, 272, 274, 315; boundary dispute with Honduras, 152-153, 308, 309
Niemöller, Martin, 10
Nine Power Treaty, 9, 56, 184, 206, 208, 212, 216, 217, 225, 226, 228, 229, 283, 302, 304, 305; invoked by China in dispute with Japan, 211
Non-Intervention Committee. See Spain—Spanish civil war
Norway, increases armament, 82; relaxes trade restrictions, 95, 314; at Brussels Conference, 226-230; and Spanish civil war, 295
Nye, Senator Gerald P., on neutrality, 45, 59; on Far Eastern crisis, 202

Obregón, Alvaro, 117
O'Malley, Representative Thomas, on neutrality in Far Eastern crisis, 202
Open Door policy, 184, 242, 323
Oslo agreements, 95, 320
Ottawa Conference, 323. See also British Imperial Conference

Pact of Paris, 4, 25, 208, 212, 217, 222, 283, 302
Paiva, Felix, 313
Palestine, Italian propaganda in, 31
Panama, 184, 274
Pan American Conference, 57, 324
Panay, United States gunboat, sunk by Japanese, 4, 20, 21, 235, 244-245, 305, 306, 318; situation due to sinking of, 230-234; text of President Roosevelt's memorandum on sinking of, 285-286
Paraguay, 152, 274; experiments along totalitarian lines, 150-151; chronology, 313. See also Chaco dispute
Peace organizations, comments of, on President Roosevelt's Chicago speech, 222-223
People's Mandate to End War, 143
Pepper, Senator Claude, on tariff changes, 108
Peru, 152, 274, 324; signs international sugar agreement at London, 105; Japanese immigration into, 137
Petróleos de Mexico, 124, 126
Philadelphia Inquirer, 222
Philippine Islands, 5, 97, 154, 165, 184, 315, 324; at International Sugar Conference in London, 105; future of, 176 ff.; future relations, with United States, 179-180; operation of the new Commonwealth, 180-181; possible Japanese threat to, 181-183; chronology, 319
Pig iron, U. S. exports and prices in 1936 and 1937, 267
Piracy, charges of, in Spanish civil war, 29-30, 297-298
Pittman, Senator Key, 318; on neutrality, 43, 52; on Far Eastern crisis, 203; on President Roosevelt's Chicago speech, 222 n.
Platt Amendment, 168
Poland, 290, 313; influence of revolutionary ideas on, 13, 15; rearmament, 82, 314; and Far Eastern crisis, 218; and Spanish civil war, 295
Pope, Senator James P., 202

Portugal, 13, 115; and Spanish civil war, 26 ff., 293-299; at Brussels Conference, 226-230
President Hoover, United States passenger vessel, bombed in China, 195, 196 n., 303
Prices, 324; commodity prices in important countries, 264; prices of stocks on New York Stock Exchange, 265; monthly prices of various war materials, 266-269
Production, industrial, improves because of rearmament, 88; indices of, in important countries, 263
Puerto Rico, 114, 324; affected by new United States sugar legislation, 100-101; economic plight of, 154 ff.; moves for statehood and independence in, 155-158; political disturbances in, 158-160; reconstruction program, 160-164; future political status, 164-167; attitude toward competition from Philippine Islands, 179

Quezon, Manuel, proposes that date of Philippine independence be advanced, 178, 182, 319; statement on tariff adjustments between Philippines and the United States, 179

Ramos, R. Menendez, 162 n.
Reciprocity. See Tariffs
Recognition policy of the United States, 324
Reichspost, 10 n.
Riggs, Colonel E. Francis, 158, 159
Rogers, Representative Edith, on trade agreements policy, 109
Rome-Berlin axis. See Anti-Communist pact
Roosevelt, Franklin D., 14, 115, 130, 307, 317, 319; signs arms embargo resolution applying to Spanish civil war, 42, 293; signs neutrality resolution, 45, 318; on rising prices in the United States, 66; urges increased armament appropriations, 86, 243, 271, 315, 318; proposes new sugar legislation, 99; signs sugar bill, 102; submits international sugar agreement to Senate, 106; confers with Premier van Zeeland, 111, 319; urges ratification of inter-American treaties, 143, 308; urges ratification of Argentine Sanitary Convention, 145-146; on Puerto Rican affairs, 162; proclaims partial arms embargo in Far Eastern crisis, 198, 205, 303; on neutrality in Far Eastern crisis, 204; on Brussels Conference, 226-230, 304; on Panay bombing, 233-234; text of memorandum to Secretary Hull on Panay bombing, 285-286; Chicago speech, 218-220; text of speech, 278-282; comments on speech in the world press, 221-222; references to speech, 17, 20, 25, 63 n., 140, 223, 227, 228, 236, 298, 304; opposes Ludlow Amendment, 236
Roosevelt, Colonel Theodore, on conditions in Puerto Rico, 161 n., 166
Roper, Daniel Calhoun, 111
Rumania, 13, 15, 290
Runciman, Walter, visits the United States, 110-111
Russia. See USSR (Union of Soviet Socialist Republic)

Saito, Hirosi, Japanese Ambassador to the United States, 213, 286; apologizes for Panay bombing, 305
Salvador, El, 4, 272, 274, 308; trade agreement with the United States, 106, 319
Sanitary Convention, between Argentina and the United States, 145-146
Sato, Naotake, 189, 190, 300
Sayre, Francis B., on Philippine tariff adjustments, 179
Schacht, Hjalmar, 36
Schneider-Creusot, airplane plants of, nationalized by France, 79, 313
Schuschnigg, Kurt, 289
Shanley, Representative James A., on neutrality, 49
Shotwell, James T., 24

Siam, and Far Eastern crisis, 218
Silver, 186, 307, 324. See also International Finance
Simon, Sir John, 38; on British gas mask production, 70
Simpson, Eyler N., cited, 129 n.
Singapore, naval base strengthened, 5
Sino-Japanese dispute, 4, 5, 19, 222, 236; problems of American neutrality regarding, 21, 56, 60, 198-206, 242-243; hostilities in North China, 191 ff., 242; in Shanghai area, 194-195, 201; number of American troops in China at outbreak of hostilities, 195; blockade of China's coast by Japan, 197-198, 204; partial arms embargo applied by United States, 198-199, 205, 303; American action in, 207 ff., China appeals to signatories of Nine Power Treaty, 211-212; to the League, 215-217; League condemns Japan as an aggressor, 217-218, 303-304; League action endorsed by Secretary Hull, 220; text of statement endorsing action, 282-283; text of statement by Japanese government protesting against League resolution, 283-284; considered at Brussels Conference, 20, 226-230, 243, 304; text of statement by Norman H. Davis at conclusion of conference, 284-285; protest of powers against bombing of Nanking, 212-215; boycott movement against Japanese goods, 222-225; Panay incident, 230-234, 245, 285-286, 304, 305, 306; Secretary Hull on policy of United States, 286-287; chronology of, 301-306
Skoda munitions works, 302
Smathers, Senator William H., 286-287, 305
Sorel, Georges, 11
South America. See Latin America
Souza Costa, Arthur de, 146-147
Spaak, Paul Henry, at Brussels Conference, 228
Spain, 14, 67, 115, 133, 134, 141, 156, 157, 198, 220, 238, 291, 305, 321, 324; civil war in, 5, 26 ff., estimates of foreign volunteers in, 28 n.; Almeria shelled by German squadron, 28, 59, 200; "piracy" in the Mediterranean, 29-30, 297-298; arms embargo applied by United States, 41-42, 60, 201, 242; effects in, of President Roosevelt's Chicago speech, 222; chronology, 293-299
Standard Oil Company, vessels of, sunk in China, 231, 305
Standard Oil Company of California, involved in oil dispute with Mexico, 312
Steel, U. S. prices and exports in 1936 and 1937, 267
Stimson Doctrine, 184, 324
Stimson, Henry L., 20, 207; on Far Eastern crisis, 38; urges joint action against Japan, 223; opposes Ludlow Amendment, 236
Sugar, 324; battles over, in Congress, 98-103; international agreement signed at London, 103-106, 319; Chadbourne plan for control of, 104; importance of American market for Philippine industry, 178, 181
Swanson, Claude A., 316
Sweden, 272, 306; increases armaments, 82; relaxes trade restrictions, 95, 314; at Brussels Conference, 226-230; indices of production in, 263
Switzerland, 70, 79, 88 n., 272, 289, 314, 315
Syria, Italian propaganda in, 31

Tariff Commission, U. S., reports of, cited, 95 n., 181
Tariffs, 314, 324; relaxation of trade restrictions in various countries, 94-96; inconsistencies in national trade policies, 96-98; trade agreements in 1937, 106-107, 113-114; Trade Agreements Act extended, 107-108; agreements of United States with El Salvador and Costa Rica, 106; agreements contemplated with Great Britain and other countries, 106-114; experience with Cuba, 168; adjustments planned with Philippines, 179-180; countries with which trade agreements were concluded under act of June 12, 1934, 272; trade of U. S. with trade agreements countries and with all others, 273; chronology, 319-321

Taylor, Representative Edward T., 86, 271, 318
Terauchi, General Juichi, 187
Thompson, Charles A., cited, 120 n., 121 n., 123 n.
Thompson, Dorothy, quoted, 221
Times (London), cited, 72, 76, 110 n., 125 n., 221; warns against boycott of Japanese goods, 225
Tin, price of, 269
Tinkham, Representative George H., on Far Eastern crisis, 196
Trade agreements. See Tariffs
Treadway, Allen T., opposes tariff concessions to Philippines, 179
Treaty of Versailles, 3, 35, 315
Trujillo y Molina, Rafael Leonidas, 172, 173, 175; agrees to inter-American mediation in border dispute with Haiti, 176
Turkey, 13, 106, 272 n.
Tydings-McDuffie Act, 178
Tydings, Senator Millard E., on Puerto Rican affairs, 159

Ugaki, General Kazushige, 187, 300
Umstead, Representative William B., proposes naval conference, 85
Union of South Africa, at Brussels Conference, 226-230
U.S.S.R. (Union of Soviet Socialist Republics), 1, 4, 5, 6, 10, 13, 15, 35, 40, 70, 134, 156, 238, 300, 316, 318, 324; and Spanish civil war, 26 ff., 293-299; signs Nyon agreement, 29, 297, 298; plans further rearmament, 62 ff., 80-81, 314, 315; signs naval agreement with Great Britain, 74-75, 317; production improves in 1937, 89; trade agreement with United States, 97 n., 106 n., 319-320; Amur River incident, 190-191, 192; and Far Eastern crisis, 214, 226-230, 304; pact of non-aggression with China, 215-216, 303; chronology, 292
United States, 2, 4, 5, 13, 14, 15, 18, 23, 119, 134, 140, 244-246, 274, 306, 307, 316, 317; isolationist sentiment in, 17, 37, 38, 238; economic conditions, 1937, 18, 19, 66-67, 88-90; foreign policy of, 19-20; neutrality in Far Eastern crisis, 21, 198-206; troops in China, 195; applies partial arms embargo in Far Eastern crisis, 198-199, 205, 303; action of, in China, 207 ff.; protests against bombing of Nanking, 213, 214, 215, 303, 304; endorses League action in dispute, 220, 282-283; private boycotts against Japanese goods, 222-225; represented at Brussels Conference, 20, 226-230, 243, 304; Panay incident, 230-234, 245, 285-286; 304, 305, 306; policy of, in Far Eastern crisis outlined by Department of State, 286-287; and Spanish civil war, 26 ff., 59-60, 293-299; neutrality legislation, 39 ff.; production of metal industries in, 64; and rearmament, 82-87, 270-271, 316; inconsistencies in trade policies, 96-98; extends trade agreement with Russia, 97 n.; extends Trade Agreements Act, 107-108, 319; agreements with El Salvador and Costa Rica, 106; agreements contemplated with other countries, 106-114; sugar legislation, 98-103; ratifies international sugar agreement, 105-106, 320; friendly relations with Canada, 115; relations with Mexico, 123-133, 311-313; representations to Mexico on tariff increases, 130-131; restatement of Monroe Doctrine, 135; trade relations with Latin America, 138-140; apprehension concerning Latin America, 141-142; ratifies Buenos Aires agreements, 142, 274; friction with Argentina over meat embargo, 145-146; trade and financial agreements with Brazil, 147, 307; proposes to lease destroyers to Latin American countries, 147-152, 276-277; mediates in dispute between Nicaragua and Honduras, 152-153, 308; program of reconstruction for Puerto Rico, 160 ff.; relations with Cuba, 167-172; mediates in dispute between Haiti and Dominican Republic, 175, 308, 309; relations with the Philippines, 177 ff.; tariff relations with the Philippines, 179-180; aid to China, 185, 307; indices of production in, 263; commodity prices in, 264; exports of war materials from, 266-269; list of countries with which trade agreements were concluded under act of June 12, 1934, 272; trade of, with trade agreement countries and with all others, 273

United States in World Affairs, topical guide to, 322-324
Uruguay, 136-137, 274

Vandenberg, Senator Arthur H., on neutrality, 45 n.; proposes tariff changes, 108
Vargas, Getulio, 147, 309, 310; abolishes 1934 Constitution in Brazil, 150
Venezuela, 153, 274, 308; contemplated trade agreement with, 106
Vincent, Sténio, President of Haiti, 173, 174, 176
Vinson-Trammel Act, 84
Virgin Islands, 162
Voelkischer Beobachter, cited, 11 n.

Wallace, Henry Agard, on sugar legislation, 100
Walsh, Senator David I., on leasing of warships to Brazil, 147-148, 308
Wang, Chengting T., Chinese Ambassador to the United States, 205
War debts, 2, 3, 38, 324
War materials, boom in, 266-269
War profits. See Munitions
Washington naval treaties, 39, 74, 76, 84
Washington Post, quoted, 149, 200, 221
Welles, Sumner, outlines policy of Good Neighbor, 130, 151, 275-276; statement on Monroe Doctrine, 309
Weyer's Naval Handbook, 318
Whittlesey, C. R., cited, 98 n.
Wichita, merchant vessel, 303
Wilson, Woodrow, quoted, 13
Winship, Governor Blanton, 159 n.
World War, mentioned, 5, 9, 11, 24, 29, 33, 36, 55, 61, 62, 68, 70, 71, 116, 135

Yarnell, Admiral Harry E., 304
Young Women's Christian Association, National Board of, opposes boycott of Japanese goods, 225
Yugoslavia, 13, 15, 289, 290; and Spanish civil war, 299

Zeeland, Paul van, 290, 320; confers with President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull, 111, 319
Zinc, U. S. prices and exports in 1936 and 1937, 269